

Transformative Visions: Art Show & Jazz / Spoken Word Concert

Saturday, March 14, 2009 • 2:00-5:00 PM

WHAT: A multi-media art show and jazz / spoken word concert lifting up a vision of peace, justice, and possibility for our world. Scheduled to coincide with the annual observance of A Season for Nonviolence and the anniversary of the US invasion of Iraq, this event is intended to both challenge and inspire, offering a spiritually-rooted response to the troubling and urgent issues of the present day.

WHERE: Studio One, 365 - 45th St, Oakland, CA, 94609

FEATURING LIVE JAZZ: Musical all-stars, RHQ – the Richard Howell Quintet – featuring Destiny Muhammad, the “Harpist from the Hood.”

VISUAL ARTISTS will display works in a variety of media on the theme of Transformative Visions that affirm values such as dignity, freedom, equality, compassion, interdependence, peacemaking, justice, healing, and possibility.

SPOKEN WORD ARTISTS will perform original works that address a variety of activist concerns and carry a prophetic and empowering message of positive social change.

ADMISSION: Free (donations gratefully accepted)

PRODUCED BY OneLife Institute, a nonprofit interfaith organization providing resources for the integration of spirituality and social action. Through classes, retreats, publications, counseling and consultation services we seek to support and empower individuals and groups in their commitment to personal and social transformation.
